

Resources for Developing Computer Skills

Computers One Click at a Time

This beginner's guide to core computer skills is available for loan from the LFL library. Topics include word processing, spreadsheets, windows, folders, Internet basics, and online safety.

Northstar Digital Literacy

<http://digitalliteracyassessment.org>

The Northstar site includes practice digital literacy assessments; free instructional units on Basic Computer Skills, Email, Microsoft Word, and Career Search Skills; and a list of recommended external resources for further study.

GCF Learn Free

<http://GCFLearnFree.org>

GCF Learn Free offers lessons, videos, interactive activities, and games for adults working to improve their basic skills. Topics include general computer skills, computer applications, and workplace skills. GCF Learn Free also provides activities in reading, writing, math, media literacy, and financial literacy.

Typing Club

<http://typingclub.com>

Typing Club offers free and engaging typing lessons.

Apex Learning

Apex is a subscription-based distance education program that offers a course in Computer Applications among many other topics. See LFL staff for access.